Glam Slam

Flashback to your childhood – so close, yet so far away. You're, conspicuously rummaging through your mom's closet and playing dress-up. All of a sudden, you come across the perfect necklace to go with your emerald green mini-skirt and butterfly top. The shimmery pink jewels even match the glitter on your roller skates! Poof! Just like that, you feel complete. You call your best friend to meet you at the schoolyard, where all the kids have gathered around the skating rink for the Saturday afternoon championship. Your friends catch a glimpse of you rounding the corner and notice the necklace right away. It's just sooo you.

Toronto-born jewelry designer Monica Graves brings you that one-of-a-kind exuberance with glam, affordable, high-quality accessories made from Czech beads on silver and gold plated findings. A visit to her Burlington studio to pick out your perfect accessories is a like a trip to wonderland. Whether your dream is focused around a date, a girls' night out or a wedding, with glam you are the belle of the ball. There are plenty of simpler choices as well to doll up even the drabbest outfit. The line has attracted stars like Fergie and Vivica A. Fox who have been seen strutting their glam stuff at the Much Music Video Awards.

Graves latest project is collaboration with Canadian designer Brenda Beddome. They will offer an exclusive line of dresses and tops with glam details – detachable sleeve dangles and sparkly collar rims which may be worn as bracelets and necklaces! Ingenious!
